

Dr Jonathan joined the Local Doctor Family in late 2017 and brings with him a wealth of knowledge and enthusiasm for excellent patient care. Originally training in Ophthalmology (one of the most competitive surgical fields) Jonathan wanted to find a role in medicine that would allow him to have time for his family as well. Jonathan is an extraordinarily kind and empathic doctor, who is always there for his patients.

MBBS Melbourne University